Mummies or Daddies who Make

Are you clever with your hands or into a craft?

Do you make things that are saleable?

There are a number of new up and coming opportunities for you to exhibit and sell your wares:

You can sponsor an SCA Coffee Morning – the next one is on Friday 11th June, OR you could take a ‘craft’ stall at this year’s Summer Fair on Saturday 26th June, or take a table or two at our Early Christmas Shopping Evening in November!
